

Energy efficiency programme for multi-apartment buildings, Latvia

Description of the action:

- Program was launched on April 3, 2025, in accordance with Cabinet of Ministers Regulations No.880.
- European Regional Development Fund
- Acceptance of new applications till May 13, 2025
- All available funding has been reserved by 352 applicants

Period of the action:

2021-2027

Volume/budget (€):

173 million euros

Pros

- Achieving total primary energy savings of more than 30 %
- Pilot projects for prefabricated wood Insulation panels
- Renovation of quarters (3+ nearby)
- Development of Latgale planning region

Expected or measured impacts

Use this section to highlight:

- 10 pilot projects on renovation with prefab. wood insulation panels
- Support for energy-efficient housing for people at risk of energy poverty

Aim of the action:

The aim is to invest in improving energy efficiency and transitioning to renewable energy sources, achieving total primary energy savings of more than 30 % and promoting the transition to zero-energy buildings.

Type of the action:

Multi apartment building renovation

Target group(s):

Prefabricated wood insulation panels, renovation of quarters, Latgale planning region

Is the action aimed at

- _ vulnerable households
- _ worst performing buildings
- x both

Cons

- High interest, low available funding
- Rising costs of renovation materials and works

Further information

Ministry of Economics of Latvia, pasts@em.gov.lv
JSC Development Finance Institution ALTUM, altum@altum.lv