Final comments

KEINO seeks to increase contracting entities' awareness of strategic procurement management and impact thinking. KEINO will assist contracting entities in management tool development and measurement.

KEINO will set up powerful and efficient buyer groups for procurement in the fields of social welfare and health services, construction and energy use, mobility and logistics, and bio- and circular economy.

KEINO will support the development of procurement competence through advisory services, events and network meetings. The aim is also to promote peer learning among procurement professionals.

KEINO seeks to strengthen international networks and peer to peer learning for procurers
